KUDYMKAR

There are many versions connected with the name of our town. The first came from folk legends and tales. This is how the writer Klimov explains in one of his essays. “ ...Long, long ago there lived a young prince Kudym. One day he decided to live apart from his farther. He found a new beautiful place in the forest near the river. The prince built the fortress “kar” with high and strong walls and his people began to call it Kudymkar.”

Another scientist Krivoshjokov supposes that a place overgrown with pine trees was called “kudma” and together with the word “kar” it sounded like “kudma kar”. Later it turned into Kudymkar. It is easier to pronounce.

Proceeding from historical documents we may say that for the first time this settlement was mentioned in 1579. The settlement consisted of 7 houses. At the beginning of the 17th century Kudymkar became the centre of a small village district. To the middle of the 18th century there were more than 100 houses. The main occupation was agriculture. At that time the first bridge over the Inva River was built and was named after Sofja Strogonova. At the beginning of the 19th century schools for men and women, a hospital, a public library were opened. In 1938 Kudymkar got the status of a town. Now it is an administrative and cultural centre of the autonomous area.

The Alley of Heroes is the monument to the soldiers fallen during the Great Patriotic War. It was built according to the project of the architect Petrov by means of the citizens of the town. Every spring many people come here to take part in the meeting devoted to the 9th of May.

- f) Proceeding from historical documents for the first time this settlement was mentioned in 1579.
- g) The settlement consisted of 7 houses.

There are some other places connected with the heroic deeds of people during the war period, for example: 12, Lenin Street. There in 1930 the famous intelligence officer lived and worked. Besides there is a well-known museum named after Kuznetsov. There you can find very good information about his life and activities before and during the war.

One of the main streets of our town is Likhacheva Street. Likhachev was born in Egva of Kudymkar district. He worked as a teacher in a pedagogical school. He is known as the writer of the exercise-books and ABC for the national schools. He is one of the founders of Komi literature and the member of the Writers Union of the USSR.

There is a park in our town. It was planted in 1892. The trees were brought from Kazan by Krivoshjokov, the initiator of this idea. He became an outstanding expert in the history and geography of Perm land and he made the first map of it. Nearly 40 books and maps were published and that's why he was awarded by the silver medal.
